

Master of Arts in Marriage and Family Therapy Program (Online)

Touro University Worldwide is seeking adjunct faculty for practicum and or online courses in its Master of Arts in Marriage and Family Therapy Program.

Essential Job Functions:

- Motivate students to achieve learning outcomes in interactive class discussions
- Teach practicum students in a synchronized setting
- Interact with an academically and culturally diverse student population
- Provide timely responses and grading for students

Required Qualifications:

- Preferred Doctoral/Terminal Degree (from a regionally accredited university/college)
- One to two years teaching experience in academe with special preference towards psychopharmacology, psychopathology and research methods
- Licensed as a Marriage and Family Therapist
- Currently an AAMFT Clinical Fellow
- Currently certified as AAMFT Approved Supervisor or AAMFT Supervisor Candidate

Please send letter of interest and resume electronically to tuw.HR@tuw.edu

TUW is part of the Touro University System. Read more about TUW at www.tuw.edu.

Touro University Worldwide is an Equal Opportunity employer, and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, ancestry, religion, gender, sexual orientation, age, physical disability, mental disability, marital status, veteran status, genetic information, or any other characteristic which may be specified by law or university policy.