WORLDWIDE

CONFIDENTIALITY POLICY

Your right to privacy and confidentiality is a high priority at Touro University Worldwide. TUV policy on disclosure of information conforms to the university's policies and state and federal law.

Except as noted below, no information regarding a student's disability or use of services will be released to parties outside of TUV without prior written consent:

- ❖ Information may be shared in the course of consultation with or referral to other appropriate professionals, when in the best interest of the student.
- ❖ For the purpose of providing priority registration when appropriate and other academic services which benefit the student, I.D. numbers and those eligible are provided to the Records Office. However, NO record of disability appears on any academic transcript or permanent document maintained by the Records Office.
- ❖ For legally mandated audits, I.D. numbers may be provided to the Provost.
- ❖ When required by court order, the specific information requested may be released.
- ❖ In extreme situations where immediate harm to self or others may result, the law may require that essential information be reported to the appropriate parties.
