The method(s) used by the institution to determine which students receive Emergency Financial Aid Grants and how much they would receive under the CRRSAA and ARP (a)(1) and programs.

Touro has developed a system based on federal guidance, for determining how to allocate these funds, in an equitable and non-discriminatory manner to students with exceptional need. The method included distributing the funds to all students who met the Department of Education eligibility criteria to cover expenses related to the disruption of campus operations due to coronavirus (including eligible expenses under a student's cost of attendance, such as food, housing, course materials, technology, health care, and childcare). These funds were made available with limited barriers to receipt to students who were:

- enrolled in the Spring 2021 semester: and
- are "US Citizens" or "other eligible non-Citizens."

According to Touro's criteria, each student who received HEERF II Funds in the period received between $21.68 and $307.33.

7. Any instructions, directions, or guidance provided by the institution to students concerning the Emergency Financial Aid Grants.

- Touro sent a survey to all eligible students via student email, designed to identify financial hardship due to COVID 19 in a couple of different categories, job loss, housing, food, childcare, and healthcare.
- Students received a reminder to complete the survey every Monday, Wednesday, and Friday for two weeks.
- Students received instructions letting them know that if they wished to opt-out of receipt of these funds then they should answer "NO" to all survey questions.
- A Frequently Asked Questions sheet was also posted on Touro's Help Desk website to answer questions students may have had.

No funds were expended in the 90 days prior to publication of this report. All funds indicated were expenses in a prior quarter. ***
